I understand that the Foundation will execute my bids as a convenience, and will not be held responsible for errors, or the inadvertent failure to execute bids. On my behalf, the Foundation will try to purchase these lots for the lowest possible price. If identical absentee bids are left, the Foundation will give precedence to the first one received. I have read and agree to the Conditions of Sale on the following page. Payment for successful bids must be made within one week of the sale. A premium of 20% of the successful bid will be applied to the individual hammer price of all lots sold, to be paid by the buyer as part of the purchase price.

Demuth Foundation Art Auction Condition of Sales

The Foundation and its agents will in good faith select art assumed to be authentic and by the artist named by the seller, but it assumes no responsibility, legal or otherwise, for the authenticity, value, or condition of the art offered or sold. All art will be sold “as is.”

The Auctioneer’s gavel ends the sale on each item auctioned, and bidding will NOT be reopened under any circumstances. All sales are final.

Buyers pay a 20% premium to the Foundation plus 6% sales tax.

Buyers’ premiums apply whether art is sold during the auction or as a result of it.

All items must be paid for within 7 days of the sale, at which point they will be released for shipment or pick up.

The Foundation does not pay shipping costs.

The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the Buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer has the absolute discretion to determine which bidder is the successful Buyer.
